Our Panellist

Tarek El-Refai, BNY Mellon, Managing Director, Head of MEA Global Client Management, is heading the team in Dubai that manages sovereign wealth funds, asset managers, banks' relationship of BNY Mellon in MEA including GCC as well as countries like Libya, Egypt, Yemen, Lebanon where a lot of turmoil happens and potential changes on their agenda. Tarek will talk about fund managers interest in Turkey with names of FM and amounts, as well as GCC interest in Turkey. Although data is some what hidden, some ideas about the style that Sovereign Wealth Funds use in these countries will also be shared. The way that specific countries prefer in investing countries like Turkey will also be sampled, ie Qataris-private equity, Saudi, Kuwaities and rest of GCC v.s. funds. Also a mention will be made on how such funds find a value added in using ADRs as the exit strategy.
